THE LORDS REFUSE.

Evicted Tenants Bill Beaten by the Upper English House.

WARNINGS ARE DESPISED.

Hereditary Legislators Block the Will of the People's Representatives—Other Foreign News—Another Victory Reported for Japan.

London, Aug 14—In the House of Lords to-day the evicted tenants bill came up for second reading. The Duke of Devonshire said that the Unionists would have met the government half way if they had had any basis for a real compromise, but seeing that the present bill would further disturb Ireland they could not assent to it.

Lord Salisbury complained of the oppressive power of the arbitrators which would amount to despotism. He ridiculed the prophesies that the Lords would seal their own doom by rejecting the bill. Nobody paid any attention to such bluster speeches he said, as they were known to be hollow. He admitted that second chambers, like the House of Lords, were not immortal. Six or seven such institutions had vanished in this century, he said, but in each case the popular chamber had vanished at the same time. If he were asked to prophesy the date of their decease he would say: "A few days before the Commons." (Laughter.)

The Prime Minister, Lord Rosebery, deplored the levity with which the noble lord who has just spoken had treated a grave question. Not only had he not suggested a compromise, but he seemed to doubt whether anything existed in regard to which a compromise was desirable. Referring to the Duke of Argyle's remarks against the bill, the Premier said that this measure came to them with the authority of Justice Matthiew. (Laughter.) He regretted that their Lordships laughed at the learned judge. They might laugh, but they could not ignore the authority of the tribunal. When a bill of this kind arising from such a device was rejected without the slightest alternative he was tempted to inquire what was the use of the House of Lords. He would not for a moment say that its existence was at stake more than it had been last year or would be next year, but everyone could see there was much in the air tending to make the House walk warily. It could not be doubted that the House had been unable since the franchise act of 1874 to claim co-ordinate authority with the Commons. The political power had come to them approved by the masses and supported by four-fifths of the Irish members. Their Lordships were playing with edged tools. They were playing with fire at the door of a magazine.

The motion for the second reading of the bill was rejected by a vote of 21[illegible]

Damaged by a Bomb.

London, Aug 15—The Daily Telegraph says that a bomb exploded last evening in the postoffice at New Cross, South London, and that the office was much damaged.

Deaths from Cholera.

Berlin, Aug 14—Forty-five cases of cholera and 15 deaths had been reported in the Johannisburg district of Prussia Aug 12.

Anarchists Arrested.

Rome, Aug 14—Several anarchists were arrested at an open air meeting yesterday at [illegible]. The police searched their houses near the center of the city to-day and found their bombs, explosives tools and chemicals for the manufacture of such articles.

The police are watching anarchist suspects constantly. Most of the anarchists are being deported to Massowah.

Some British Comments.

London, Aug 15—The Standard warns British investors against buying all kinds of United States securities. It will be a long time, it says, before the country recovers from the suspended animation of the past year and a half.

The Daily Chronicle says: "The Senate has become the naked and undisguised instrument of trusts and syndicates. No more shameful or more selfish conspiracy by which a few capitalists at the expense of the people has been witnessed in our time. We do not want to exchange even our own ridiculous and irritating anachronisms for such tyrannical power."

The Charleston Ordered to China.

Washington, Aug 14—The fact that the progress of the China-Japan affair is regarded as sufficiently grave to require the augmentation of our naval forces in Chinese seas is made evident by Secretary Herbert's order issued to-night requiring the Charleston to prepare to start for the scene of hostilities as soon as possible. The Charleston is now at San Francisco, having just undergone a cleaning of her bottom at the Mare Island navy yard. She will touch at Honolulu on her way.

A Victory for Japan.

[illegible], Aug 14—A despatch from Yoko[illegible] says that in the engagement between the Japanese and Chinese fleets on Aug. 11, the Japanese were victorious.

REFUGEES ABROAD.

British Cruiser Carries Away 113 Mosquitoes.

Colon, Aug 14—A dispatch to the [illegible] from Port Limon, Costa Rica, dated [illegible] says: "The British cruiser Mohawk arrived here from the Mosquito country with Chief Clarence and 112 refugees on board. Bluefields was retaken by 2,000 Nicaraguans who arrived from Rama and were aboard transports flying the United States flag. The American marines [illegible] on their approach abandoning the Nicaraguan residents, many of whom reached the [illegible] flag from their houses, and upon it and hoisted the British flag. The Nicaraguan officials on entering the settlement hauled down and tore into the Mosquito flag and arrested numbers of Americans and Jamaicans suspected of sympathizing with Chief Clarence. Captain Stuart of the Mohawk went into the port and rescued all who were willing to accept British protection.

The Mohawk remains at Port Limon awaiting orders from Great Britain. Chief Clarence is still aboard the Mohawk.

"Move On."

Kansas City, Mo, Aug. 14—The West [illegible] Coxey's army and several other [illegible] to Washington. Washington is returning the compliment. About fifty [illegible] arrived in Kansas City at 7 o'clock this morning direct from Washington. They came on the Wabash railroad from St Louis and had one ticket, paid for the transportation of 70 men from Washington to St. Louis on the Big Four railway and from St. Louis to Kansas City on the Wabash. When the wealth [illegible] marching on to Washington from every corner of the great West they were [illegible] at every city and hamlet to "move on." Now that they are returning, it is the same thing over again "Move on" was the command given by St Louis police officers and "move on" was the command given by the Kansas City police officers, and so it will probably be until the great army of the Commonweal is so scattered that [illegible] individuals and squads can no longer retain their identity.

WHEELMEN'S CONVENTION

A Large Number are Now Gathered in Denver

Denver, Aug 14—The L. A. W. meet was formally opened to-day with a grand parade in which wheelmen from all the States in the Union took part. Thousands of Denver people reviewed the procession and admired the pretty costumes worn by the lady and gentlemen riders and marveled at the grace of their movements.

It was a grand demonstration of the strength of the league and Colorado made a fine appearance.

Last night's smoker enabled the visitors to get acquainted with each other and to-day they were like brothers and sisters. The morning trains brought in many more delegates and they were soon on the streets helping to swell the crowd.

There was another large gathering at headquarters at the Coliseum this morning. Captain Marshall of the D. A. C. bicycle division was in charge of the credentials committee booth and he was kept very busy all morning.

Miss Fern E. West the pretty young lady who appeared on the streets of Denver some months ago in a charming Parisian bicycle costume got in from Nebraska on an early train and joined the other lady riders from Fremont.

Probably the most prominent arrival to-day was Sanger the fast Eastern rider. Bliss, another fast rider will be here tomorrow. Sanger thus far is a leading favorite with the racing men.

Other fast riders now here are Foster, Wells and Zeigler the California boys, Dunberger, Taxis, Kennedy and Maddox, the Sterling team Lutz and Callahan, the Stears boys from Buffalo, Boren, Salomon and Tackaberry, the Stearns boys from Texas, Anderson of St Louis and C. R. Coulter of Toledo.

Coulter has beaten the world's record for a half mile standing start unpaced riding in 1:03 4-5. Callahan the Buffalo man is out here more for the road race than for the track. He has covered 25 miles in 1:10 [illegible]. Zeigler has the Western record for two miles—4:44 and Foster his team mate rode a half mile flying start in [illegible] this morning.

There is quite a little feeling against the Eastern men who have entered the races here and have since signified their intention of remaining away. Tyler has already gone to Springfield where he is going into training for the express purpose of record breaking. His managers thinking that a more valuable advertisement for their wheel than the mere winnings in competition. It is not positively known whether J. S. Johnson will be here or not, but in the event of his not coming Secretary Burleson will have steps taken towards expelling him for violation of contract as he has already entered a number of races here.

A large number of the racing men who took part in Saturday's meet at Minneapolis are expected, and it will then be known definitely whether all the big men will be here or not.

The wheel park track was crowded to-day and several good records were made.

Governor Waite has promised to divide the relay message among the clubs whose members took part in the great race. Judging from the number of clubs which were represented the message will have to be cut up into very small parts.

Prominent among the arrivals to-day were a large number of ladies in costume. The bloomer Parisian and Turkish dresses were well represented.

It is estimated that 400 delegates arrived on the morning trains. The committees in charge of the various races have been kept busy recording entries, and this portion of the meet promises to be a great success.

Nearly 50 prizes will be offered for the road race Sunday and between 100 and 200 contestants are expected to enter. The entries close to-night.

Exports and Imports

Washington, Aug 14—The chief of the bureau of statistics reports that the total value of the exports of merchandise from the United States during the month of July 1894 and during the seven months ended July 31 1894 as compared with similar exports during the corresponding periods of the preceding year were as follows: July, 1894 $52,715,183; 1893, $60,117,[illegible]. Seven months ended July 31 1894, $457,142,411; 1893, $457,711,314. In July last the imports exceeded the exports by $12,537,614. In July, 1893, the excess of exports over imports was $5,927,[illegible]. During the seven months ended July 31, 1894 the excess of exports over imports was $75,948,158, and the excess of imports for the corresponding period of the preceding year was $82,872,231. In July 1894 the exports of gold exceeded the imports by $12,801,031 and during the seven months ended July 31 1894 the excess of exports over imports were $72,5[illegible] 436. The excess of exports of silver over imports during the seven months ended July 31 1894 was $30,900,031.

Corbett May Meet Fitzsimmons

New York, Aug 14—It now appears that "Bob" Fitzsimmons will have a chance of meeting "Jim" Corbett by putting up a reasonable forfeit and issuing a challenge to the world. This announcement is made on the authority of Champion Corbett. In other words Corbett says that he has never seen the "color" of Fitzsimmons money and that if he wants to fight let him put up his money like a man.

Police Captain Glori of Newark, who is Fitzsimmons backer, received the following telegram to-day from William A. Scholl of the Olympic club of New Orleans: "Have wired Corbett at Asbury Park offering a purse of $25,000 to meet Fitzsimmons the winner to take all."

Fitzsimmons at once accepted the Olympic club's offer and Captain Glori set about arranging for an interview with Corbett at Asbury Park to take place within the next few days.

The news that Fitzsimmons had accepted the offer to fight at New Orleans was telegraphed to Corbett this afternoon and the following answer came back:

"I have never seen the color of Fitzsimmons's money. Why does he not come out like a man and issue a challenge to the world backed by cash? If no one accepts it then it is my duty to do so."

Peter Jackson said this afternoon that he did not believe that Corbett would fight Fitzsimmons. "He wants to be an actor," said he, "and he won't be drawn into the clack box, and he won't be drawn into any more fights if he can help himself. I came all the way from San Francisco to arrange a fight with Corbett and see how he treated me. I have not been treated like a man. Corbett has been very unfair."

A Bank Wrecker Released.

Kansas City, Mo., Aug 14—Elmer C. Sattley, under sentence of four years for wrecking the Kansas City Safe Deposit and Savings bank was released from jail this afternoon on bond of $1,000 and he will have his liberty during a stay of execution and until the Supreme court has passed upon his case. The bond was approved and Mr. Sattley was released.

SOME POLITICS.

Missouri Republicans and Indiana Democrats Convene To-day

MISSOURIANS ARE FOR SILVER

Congressman Bynum is Renominated—Various Opinions on the New Tariff Bill—English Comments Display the Usual Malice

Washington, Aug 14—There was something of a flurry about the Senate to-day during the earlier hours of the session when the four separate tariff bills came over from the House for it was feared that in some way action might be forced and a showing of hands compelled to be made. Especially was this true of the bill to put sugar on the free list. There appears, however, to be no hope for any of these bills to become laws as there is a disposition on the part of the leaders to smother them in committee. The sugar bill of course, possesses the most political significance and it cannot be doubted but that there are very many Democrats who would like the opportunity to vote upon the question of free sugar as an independent proposition.

The Republicans can be depended upon to do all they can to prevent the Democrats from carrying out any desire they may have in this direction, and they base their intention upon the statement that it would be bad politics.

Should there be any effort on the part of those anxious for free sugar to attempt to prevent this and secure immediate action as Mr Vest suggested to-day, then the bills will be called up one at a time and made the basis for the offer of another new tariff bill.

Mr Hill began that work to-day when he gave notice of an amendment providing for the repeal of the income tax. Mr. Stewart is ready to lay before the Senate a free coinage amendment for each of the independent bills. Mr. Allen will offer as an amendment the Peffer tariff bill, and Mr Aldrich will offer an amendment that repeals the enacting clause of the bill to which the House agreed yesterday.

The only thing that now keeps the Senate is the sundry civil bill and the tariff bill which will reach the President tomorrow. With these two things out of the way, there would be no reason why an adjournment should not follow. Senators do not place much faith in the story that the House will refuse to adjourn until the Senate acts upon the bills mentioned but as soon as matters now attracting the attention of the Senate are out of the way, the House will be put to test by the passage on the part of the Senate of a joint resolution providing for a time for adjournment sine die.

53D CONGRESS.

Senate

Washington, Aug 14—The Senate had early official notification to-day of the passage by the House last evening of four bills placing on the free list sugar, bituminous coal, iron ore and barbed wire. As soon as the reading of yesterday's journal was finished a message announcing the passage of those bills and making no reference to the tariff bill, was delivered by the chief clerk of the House. Subsequently the bills were laid before the Senate, one after another; were read a first time and went over until to-morrow on an objection by Mr. Manderson (Rep) of Nebraska to their second reading. Mr Vest (Dem) of Missouri indicated a desire to have them taken up at once for consideration, but that was prevented by Mr Manderson's objection. In connection with these bills notice was given by Mr Hill (Dem) of New York that he would offer an amendment to each of them repealing all provisions of law in regard to an income tax. An objection to the third reading of the House joint resolution extending the general appropriations to the 24th of August, was made by Mr Aldrich (Rep) of Rhode Island and that measure also went over till to-morrow.

Mr Vest (Dem) of Missouri manifested much indignation to a resolution offered by Mr Hale (Rep) of Maine to print [illegible] copies of the tariff bill as passed, and in which resolution the bill was described as "The Sugar Trust Tariff Bill." He declared that the Senator from Maine had no right to give the bill such an appellation and that his doing so was an outrage on the Senate. The resolution went over without action.

Mr Chandler's (Rep) of New Hampshire resolution for an investigation into the recent elections in Alabama went over until to-morrow, and the Senate, at 2:10 p m adjourned.

The House was not in session to-day.

MISSOURI REPUBLICANS

The Hosts Gathering for the State Convention

Excelsior Springs, Mo, Aug 14—The Republican hosts of Missouri are gathering for the fray to-morrow. The advance guard is talkative but much at sea. It does not know what the convention will do, but its ideas as to what should be done are positive. This is to be its members say a convention without equivocation and quibbles—a campaign on a platform so plain that the wayfaring man may read as he runs.

There is to be no juggling on the financial plank, no monkeying with the English language to avoid a positive declaration of principles.

In this convention as in the Democratic gathering in Kansas City in May, silver will be one of the pronounced issues. The country folks and they constitute a big majority of the convention, demand positiveness on the white metal. They do not want anybody to stand up for "Missouri" this fall on a silver plank with gold underpinning.

The Filleyites are not so jubilant to-day as was the advance guard yesterday. The old man got several severe knocks in different wards in St. Louis yesterday. Instead of carrying everything he was defeated in several sections where he had been heretofore invincible.

Joseph Flory is the favorite thus far for railroad commissioner. About 50 counties have their delegates here.

Two of the prettiest fights in the convention outside of the big contests will be fought out to-morrow in the formation of the committees on permanent organization and on resolutions. The A. P. A. is working quietly to get enough members of the committee on resolutions to dictate that plank of the platform in which they are interested.

The Third district Republicans are trying to find a candidate to run against Congressman Dockery. A convention is called at 11 o'clock by the chairman of the central committee. He favored protection and a fair use of both gold and silver. The temporary organization will most likely be made permanent.

Indiana Democrats.

Indianapolis, Aug 14—The Democratic hosts have begun to arrive in large numbers. It is certain however, that not as many as usually attend a State convention will be here. Proxies are numerous and the delegates showed [illegible]. The enthusiasm of the delegates seems none the less than in previous years. The passage of a tariff bill, even though the great majority say they preferred the Wilson bill, has had a great influence in reviving the depressed spirits and the delegates show themselves in a fighting mood—The committee on resolutions which are giving the party more concern than the nominations was selected to-night. Robert C. Bell of Fort Wayne was chosen chairman. There is a manifest disposition among many who cannot smother their disappointment at the defeat of the House bill to denounce Senators Gorman, Brice and Smith in the resolutions by name as traitors. When Secretary Sherin of the national committee heard this to-day, he lost no time in bringing influence to bear to prevent the assault. He is a business partner with Senator Brice. The number of candidates for the 10 nominations is 14. The committee on organization to-night selected Governor Mathews as chairman of the convention.

BYNUM RENOMINATED.

He Expresses His Opinion of the New Laid Tariff.

Indianapolis, Aug 14—The Democratic Congressional convention of the Seventh district was held this afternoon and William D. Bynum was given his sixth consecutive nomination. No resolutions were reported, the convention choosing to refer the declaration of principles to the State convention which meets to-morrow. Mr. Bynum in his speech defended the Senate bill saying that while he preferred the House bill the Senate bill was superior to it in that it provided the revenue the government needs while the Wilson bill would have failed to do that by sixty millions of dollars. He said there was but 3 per cent of difference in the average duties of the two bills and that when it should be understood it would prove acceptable to the party and the people as a step in the right direction. He touched upon the money issue declaring himself in favor of any legislation that would give silver parity with gold.

What Harrity Says.

Philadelphia, Aug 14—Chairman William F. Harrity of the Democratic National committee, when asked his views as to the passage of the tariff bill said: "Under all the circumstances, I regard the action taken by the House of Representatives as wise and patriotic, although I do not share in the belief that the Senate would have refused or otherwise failed to pass a tariff bill.

"What the country needs, especially after a protracted business depression is to have the tariff question settled. Its settlement will mean a certain and steady improvement in business. I do not look for a business boom but I do expect generally improved business conditions. Quite naturally I expect that the Democratic party will be helped by the action taken.

"Whatever helps the country almost of necessity benefits the party in power. You can put me down as very well satisfied with the outcome even though the tariff bill as passed, and which is almost certain to become a law, is not all that could be desired from the Democratic standpoint."

A SUIT FOR MILLIONS.

The State of Wisconsin Has Some Old War Claims Still.

Madison, Wis, Aug 14—The State of Wisconsin is about to sue the United States for $7,0[illegible],005.77. The claim is for munitions of war, etc., furnished in 1861, which were paid for only in part by the United States, under the act of July 27, 1861, and for interest on deferred payment.

This claim should have been prosecuted years ago. Then there was absolute certainty of collection. A United States statute of limitations may in some way be made to apply to this case as to bar part of the claims. If this be the result, says Attorney General O'Connor, our defeat must rest entirely upon the fact that our State officers failed to demand in the proper time and enforce the rights of the State.

As it is a principle of law that statutes of limitations do not run against sovereign States or nations unless so expressed in the statute, the claim of the State may yet be saved, notwithstanding the neglect of former State officers.

The Governor has authorized the Attorney General to commence suit in the name of the State the matter having been brought to the Governor's attention by Attorney General O'Connor in a letter.

New York, Aug 14—Money on call has been easy at 1 per cent.; last loan at 1, and closing offered at 1 per cent. Prime mercantile paper 3 1-2@4 1-2 per cent.

London prices for American securities received before the opening of business showed decided gains and created quite a bullish movement among local operators. As a result there was an advance in the active railway stocks of 1-4 to 3-8 per cent. while distillers jumped 2 to 24 1-4. The rise brought long stock especially in the case of American Sugar, which fell to 10[illegible] 3-4 under heavy offerings for houses with Washington connections. This rather dampened the ardor of the bulls and lead to the cancellation of buying orders. Net changes show gains of 1-8 to 1 3-8 per cent in the railway list and losses of 3-8 to 1 7-8 per cent in the industrials.

Sales were 332,719 shares, against 276,903 yesterday.

The bond market was active and strong. Transactions were $1,744,000.

DIDN'T DO NOTHING.

"Snake Eye Kid" Protests His Own Innocence

HE ONLY OBEYED HIS ORDERS.

He Stole Horses, Stole Cattle, Raided a Store at Victor and Gave the Signal for the Strong Mine Explosion—And for that He is in Jail.

The confessions and statements of some of the Bull hill prisoners are quite amusing. Not one of them according to their own stories knows what they are in the El Paso county bastile for. They all look to "Papa Waite" for aid in procuring their release, as they protest that they have done nothing that deserves incarceration in a county jail. Even the fellow with the euphonious name of William Shelby West says he does not know why he should be compelled to lie in prison when he had done nothing more than shoot a few cattle for beef, run off a dozen or so of horses for the Bull hill rioters, help compel the Victor grocers to load the Bull hill wagons with provisions, and wave his hat as a signal to turn on the battery and blow up the Strong mine.

Yesterday Deputy Sheriff Bob Mullin visited the county jail where Uncle John Beal has a fine collection of Cripple Creek innocents under his fatherly care. He found there a dark complectioned, snake-eyed youth of 22 years and saluted him with, "Hello Snake-eye Kid, what have they got you here for. What have you been been doing."

"Oh, nothing," was the characteristic reply.

"How did you get here?" inquired Bob.

"Why, I was just taken up an' charged with stealin' cattle and killin' 'em fur beef ter eat, when everybody knows it's a lie, 'cause I was only fightin' fur the workin' men. I was told by 'em jist ter rustle some meat an' I rustled it. I was a crack shot. I shot at one steer an' hit 'im in de jaw, an' it was de poorest shot I ever made. I havn' dun nuffin an' don' see what they keep me here fur."

"Is that all the part you took in the fight?"

"No, course it ain't. I rustled some horses fur the fellers. They told me to."

"Did you ask the owners for them."

"What yer take me fur? I was told ter rustle 'em an' I did as I was told an' druv 'em in. I didn't care who dey b'longed to, 'cause de fellers told me ter bring 'em any way."

"And you did it, eh?"

"Yer bet yer life I did, an' I told them durned fools if dey had eny kick a comin' ter 'yes' charge it up ter de Un'n. It was de only way we had uv gettin' grub. It had to be got an' I don' see why de Un'n hasn' paid fur it an' got me out uv here."

"I don't either," was Bob's rejoinder by way of an incentive to get the Kid to go on.

"I don' see why dey keep me in here fur a little thing like that."

"Was that all the fighting you did? Just rustled cattle and horses."

"Yer bet yer life it wasn't. We made 'em store keepers load 'em wagons quick down there in Victor and don' yer furgit it nuther. We were told ter do it by de commander an' we told thet er feller what kicked ter shut up or we'd blow his head off if he didn't."

"Where were you the day the Strong was blown up?"

"Say, yer ought ter see that durned shebang go up. Lord, how she did fly."

"Were you there?"

"Well, yer bet yer life I was. I jus' went out on de hill wid de boys and waved my hat when dey was ready so de other fellers would know when to let 'er go an' turn on de batt'ry. Yer ought ter see 'er fly. Yer know yer got ter do what de fellers says when yer in de gang an' I was fighten' fur de workin' men."

"Well, if that is all you done, your friends ought to get you out of this place, 'Snake-eye'."

"Yer bet ye, dey ought ter. If dey don' let me out uv here, ol' Guv'nor Waite 'll raise thunder with 'em an' don't yer furgit it. He's a friend uv 'em Bull hill fellers as was fighten' fur the workin' man an' his rights."

William Shelby West, alias "Snake-eyed Kid" says he borrowed a pony and went off to get a bunch of cattle for some gentlemen on Bull hill, and that when he got back "some durned fool constable arrested him."

He says he thinks he has said enough to prove his innocence. Bob told him he thought he had said enough and that he had a nice comfortable place to sleep and plenty to eat without rustling someone else's cattle.

Pat Shea the fellow brought down Sunday night is another man who figured conspicuously in the recent strike. He is 6 feet ¾ of an inch in height and has been a notorious drunkard with headquarters at Victor. During the strike he was a member of Corporal Jack Dunn's Bull hill company of miners located at Victor, and was the fellow who appeared upon the scene at the time Dunn fired the shots at the militia Captain Doertenbach and assisted Dunn in his attempt to escape as well as Dynamite Shorty. Pat made his escape but was closely pursued and was captured when he returned to Bull hill last Saturday. All three, Albert McClain alias "Dynamite Shorty," Jack Dunn and Pat Shea are now in the county jail. Pat Shea is well known to have been one of the party who assaulted the deputies near Wilbur and assisted in the murdering of Rabideau, the deputy sheriff, below Victor in Fremont county. At that time Dunn and "Dynamite Shorty" and their gang stole the train and let it down upon the deputies at Wilbur.

In Memoriam.

The following preamble and resolution were unanimously adopted by Canton Colfax No 2 Patriarchs Militant:

Chevaliers of Canton Colfax No. 2 Patriarchs Militant:

We are called to mourn the loss of our worthy Brother and Chevalier, Henry Shank,

Suddenly and violently by accident was he taken from us. In the midst of health and vigor and enjoyment of all the blessings of life with a happy family sharing his lot, by an unforseen fatality, he has been ruthlessly torn from all that was so dear to him on earth, and entered upon the life that is immortal. So sudden is the blow, we cannot realize that we shall never see him in our ranks again. We deeply deplore this great loss. We feel that a good citizen, a true and noble chevalier, a loving and devoted husband and father has been called away and we reverently bow our heads in sorrow and submission to the decree of the Omnipotent and All-wise Father above.

Let us resolve, that by his death, we are made more deeply sensible of the uncertainty of life.

That we will cherish his memory and strive to emulate his virtues and bury his faults if any, beneath the clod that rests upon his bosom.

That though our loss is great, we can only realize in a small degree, the pain and sorrow that has stricken the heart of his loved wife and children. We feel that no words from human lips can comfort them, yet we would assure them of our love and sympathy and trust that they may find consolation in their great sorrow from the Fountain of All Love and Wisdom and Comfort where alone they may find peace.

FROM MANITOU

What the People at the Famous Resort are Doing.

Miss Douglas of St Louis is at the Mansions.

G. W. Ogden of Milwaukee is at the Norris.

Mr Douglas of Cripple Creek is at the Norris.

M. F. Blanchard of Omaha, Neb., is at the Graham.

M. W. Nooney of Chicago is a guest at the Graham.

A party of five from Topeka arrived in Manitou yesterday.

W. G. Crosby and party from Chicago are at the Graham.

Charles H. May and family of Nebraska are at the Barker.

Wm W. Goods and wife of Pittsburg are at the Mansions.

Mrs. W. E. Benson and son of Kansas City are at the Barker.

G. B. Thompson of Omaha is at the Norris for a short stay.

The Norris sent a party up the Cog on the excursion train last night.

Mr. Jake Cohen and wife of Galveston are at the Barker for a short stay.

Mr and Mrs. Parkhurst and daughter of Topeka went up the Peak yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. Hunter of the Norris has received a large shipment of apples from Kansas. They are beauties.

Mr. E. L. Copeland, cashier for the A. T. & S. F. railroad at Topeka, is with his family in Manitou.

L. A. West, the jeweler, is very popular this year. He has sold several hundred souvenir spoons already this season.

Mr and Mrs. Clark, Miss Maud Daniels and several other Melrose guests walked up the Peak yesterday. On account of the storm they came back on the Cog.

Mrs. G. C. Wallace and Mr. James A. Edwards of Dallas, Tex., gave a euchre party at the Mansions last night. The party was a grand success, 15 tables playing in all.

The sunset excursion up the Cog last night was not as large as it would have been had it not rained. However, over 50 went up and all who were there enjoyed being among the clouds better than they would have enjoyed the sunset. Being among the clouds is a grand sight.

Mrs G. R. Nelson gave a supper last night at the Barker. The dining room looked very pretty and the gowns worn were exquisite. The supper started at 10 o'clock and it was after 12 when the guests arose from the table. The many friends of Mrs. Nelson will ever remember her kindness.

The Barker house waiters gave their second minstrel show this season at the Wheeler hall, under the management of Head Waiter Harper and Leo Ramey. The boys gave a good show. The numbers by W. C. Crane were very good, as was also the work by Henry Anderson, who has been on the road for several years. Mr. Willie Harper and R. Brown made a good team.

Last night, though stormy, did not keep the people of Manitou from having a good time. The guests at the Barker played euchre and had a delightful time. The Cliff dwellers enjoyed some good music, and the Mansions had a card party. The Norris house played cards, danced, and had music, all in one evening. The Graham folks had a merry evening, as is always the case at that house. Manitou people rather enjoy a rainy night now and then.

The young people of the Norris house have for the last three weeks been busy gathering flowers and no one seemed to know why so many were gathered. The secret is a club has been formed by Mr. D. Edwards of Denver for the purpose of pressing Colorado flowers. The club is called the Rocky Mountain Flower Pressing association, and has some 15 members. A number of handsome books have been arranged by Professor C. T. Smith, bearing the words "Colorado Flowers," on the front page, in his fine penman work.

We need a candidate for Governor this fall who has the entire confidence of the business interests—a man about whom it will not be necessary to ask whether he is a safe man or not—a man whose election would be a guaranty that law and order will prevail in this State during his term of office, a man who is as opposite to Waite as possible in every respect. Such a man we can put before the voters if we nominate Judge Helm.

Highest of all in Leavening Power.—Latest U. S. Gov't Report.

Royal Baking Powder

ABSOLUTELY PURE

SETTLED?

Well, it is settled—settled that we shall have a long period of tariff agitation, extending over at least two years; settled that the next session of this Congress will try to pass further tariff measures; settled that business men shall not know what to depend upon for the next two years. That is, we suppose it is settled, for the House would hardly have passed the Senate bill unless somebody had been assured that the President, notwithstanding the "party perfidy and party dishonor" which it involves, would sign that measure.

We are really sorry for Mr. Cleveland. He is in a most unpleasant and undignified position. He has signified his total disapprobation of the measure which is now before him, and insisted that it should not be passed. The papers in his own party which have supported him have stigmatized this measure as a complete sale of his property to the Sugar Trust. His advice has been completely disregarded, and he has been accused in open Senate of duplicity and prevarication, and that not by Republicans, but by members of his own party. It has been proved again that not the President, but Mr. Gorman, is the real leader of the party. All this must be very bitter to a man like Cleveland. If he has the courage to veto this measure, which he has denounced in such unsparing terms, he would be supported, we believe, by the great majority of the people; but the party pressure is likely to prove too strong, and we suppose he will sign it, from purely partisan considerations.

While we regard the passage of this bill as a blow at the industries of the whole nation, we still hope that it may not greatly injure the State of Colorado. If we elect the Republican ticket in this State this fall, we do not believe that anything can stop the development of our mines and other resources. While we must share to some extent in the general depression, there will, on the other hand, be a great deal of capital withdrawn from eastern industries that cannot make money under the new conditions, and this may be available for Colorado, if we restore the confidence of investors by electing a man for Governor whose name will be a guaranty that government in this State will be stable and secure.

More than ever, therefore, since the passage of this bill, the future of Colorado depends upon our own efforts. Let us get to work, then, and make the effort of our lives.

We can hardly credit the report that President Cleveland will allow the new tariff bill to become a law through the expiration of the constitutional time limit. Whatever defects Cleveland may have, cowardice is not usually included in the list, and however small the hole through which the President may be forced to crawl, we may feel sure that it will be to him a "consecrated" one.

We are glad to learn that the opening of the new stock exchange is not to be delayed much longer. As soon as a few more stocks are listed, the regular calls will begin. The management of the new exchange is most conservative, and investors may be sure that any stock which is listed on the board has a real solid basis upon which to rest.

A few more sets of the White City Art folio still remain. As soon as these are gone, we have made arrangements for a new, but much shorter set of equally beautiful views, which we shall offer at rates that will bring them within the reach of every one.

The Republican candidate for Governor must be a man in whose behalf we may confidently appeal to the women voters of the State—a man of unimpeachable private character—a clean, honorable man. Such a man is Judge Helm.

To Rob the State

For the first time in the history of Colorado, says the Pueblo Opinion, there is a well-planned scheme to rob the State treasury. Several new daily Pop-anarchist papers are being started and the noble McClees, the Pop Secretary of State, is giving them the notice of submission to the voters of the amendments to the constitution to publish. These two items make less than a column of nonpariel, and are to run 90 days and should not cost the taxpayers to exceed $115, if published in the weekly papers as has always been done heretofore. But the Pop Secretary of State gives it to daily hand bills and the bill for printing the same will cost the taxpayers more than $250 for each daily. Two daily sheets have been started in Pueblo, one at Alamosa, and there are several more towns to hear from. The scheme is the boldest ever heard of in Colorado, and shows the desperate methods the Pops will resort to to save their tax-eating party from everlasting defeat. Will the tax-payers stand this wholesale robbery by continuing in power a party that has so little regards for the rights of the people? It would seem as though the Pop-anarchists of Colorado can give Tammany pointers on how to rob a commonwealth.

The Florence Oil Refiner in commenting on the State advertising steal says:

"Florence has one of Secretary of State McClees's campaign sheets. Does any sane man believe that it is necessary to establish a lot of small campaign dailies throughout the State to simply advertise the proposed constitutional amendments? No, that is not it. It is to feed a lot of hungry fake newspaper men, and at the same time support the Populist cause and pay for it out of the State treasury. That is the scheme pure and simple. The people will rise up on the 6th of next November and down the whole outfit."

The Alamosa Journal pays the following compliment to one of those treasury-robbing sheets in that place:

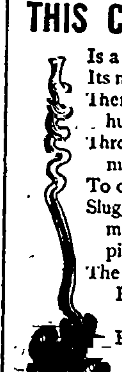

"The Populist campaign organ which will be started in Alamosa inside the next 10 days, will be run until November 10. Its main support will be in the shape of public printing, furnished by the Populist administration, and for which the people pay the bill. This will be the first time in the history of Colorado that any administration has used public patronage for the express purpose of establishing campaign organs throughout the State and only goes to show the absolute corruptness of the entire outfit."

America's Unshaken Equilibrium

It is absurd for Europeans to call our American system an "experiment," and it is well-nigh treasonable for an American thus to refer to it; for in truth it is the least experimental and the most completely self-sustaining system that the world has ever seen. If one considers the actual, working constitutions of countries, ours is the oldest and the most thoroughly tested of any that exists to-day, ignoring Asiatic systems. It is the stablest because it has most perfectly expressed the equation of law and liberty.

Against such a government who can rise without dashing himself to pieces? Anarchism is puny and helpless. Lawlessness and violence are manifest absurdities. If the law needs to be altered to secure a truer measure or quality of liberty to all, then peaceful discussion and the open ballot-box point out the way. When Senator Davis of Minnesota, at the height of the railroad strike riots in Chicago made his ringing defense of law and its enforcement, he knew that he expressed the sentiment of at least 65,000,000 of our 70,000,000 people, and that after the excitement of the moment had passed away the other 5,000,000 people would also agree with him. Senator Gordon of Georgia knew that he represented the views of the Southern people when he followed Senator Davis in an eloquent outburst of patriotism. In Chicago itself, the significant and prevailing badge that men wore on the streets was a small button-hole edition of the national colors. The strike, with all its criminal and bloody concomitants, forms a horrid chapter in our industrial history; but when it comes to the stability of institutions, our English friends should understand that the riots at the Chicago stock yards had small significance indeed when compared with such British incidents as Mitchellstown or Trafalgar Square.—(From "The Progress of the World," August Review of Reviews.

The Wrong Card.

During his visit to Paris a distinguished German professor presented himself at the house of a well known lady, to whom he had sent letters of introduction for a dance

When the servant opened the door and received his card, she conducted him to the boudoir and told him to be seated, saying:

"Madam will come immediately."

Presently the lady entered. She was in dishabille, and her feet were bare, covered only with loose slippers. She bowed to him carelessly and said:

"Ah, good morning"

She threw herself on a chair, let fall a slipper and extended her pretty foot to the professor. He was naturally completely astounded; but he remembered that at his home in Germany it was the custom sometimes to kiss a lady's hand, and he supposed it was the Paris mode to kiss her foot. Therefore he did not hesitate to imprint a kiss upon the fascinating foot so near him.

The lady jumped up, highly indignant.

"Who are you, sir, and what do you mean?"

He gave his name.

"Then you are not a chiropodist?"

"I am charmed to say, madam, that I am not."

"But you sent me a chiropodist's card?"

It was true. The professor in going out that morning had picked up the card of a chiropodist from his bureau and put it in his pocket. This, without glancing at it, he had given to the servant, who had taken it to her mistress. There was nothing to be done but to laugh over the joke.—Life's Calendar.

Too Enthusiastic.

When General Lafayette attended Lamarque's funeral, the crowd took the horses out of his carriage and drew him home themselves.

"Were you not honored and pleased?" asked a friend.

"Very much pleased," replied Lafayette, "but I never saw my horses again." Argonaut

A Good Training.

Mr. Watts I thought you told me the new girl was well trained? She can't cook a little bit.

Mrs. Watts No, she can't cook much, but she is perfectly lovely with china. She clerked in the crockery department of one of the big dry goods stores for more than a year.—Indianapolis Journal.

Another Chance.

Scribble Did you see anything of a bundle of a manuscript I had marked "1877?"

Mrs. Scribble No. Anything important?

Scribble—There were some 17 year locust jokes in it. I thought I might try 'em on again —Harlem Life.

Diminished Enthusiasm.

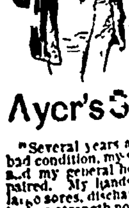

"The local team must have been playing very poor ball," said the experienced merchant.

"Why, I didn't know you paid any attention to baseball."

"I don't know anything about it except what I gather from casual observation. I have noted that my office boy's grandmother has died only twice this summer." Washington Star.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

"Several years ago, my blood was in bad condition, my system all run down, and my general health very much impaired. My hands were covered with large sores, discharging all the time. I had no strength nor energy and my feelings were miserable in the extreme. At last, I commenced taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla and soon noticed a change for the better. My appetite returned and with it, renewed strength. Encouraged by these results, I kept on taking the Sarsaparilla, till I had used six bottles, and my health was restored."—A. A. Towns, prop. NOW COMPLETE.

The White City Art Folio, the Unrivaled Collection of the World's Fair

Perfect pictures are always a source of pleasure and a never failing educational power in the household. "A thing of beauty is a joy forever." The above series of twenty numbers of eighty pictures is positively the finest collection issued of the World's Fair. Every part from one to twenty can now be had at this office, at the phenomenally low price of 20 cents a number. Arrangements have been made to have these pictures handsomely bound in a fine morocco cover. A sample of which can now be seen at the business office of this paper. The back numbers are limited, and those desiring them should call at an early date, after the supply is exhausted they can never be had again.

PAINT cracks. It often costs more to prepare a house for repainting that has been painted in the first place with cheap ready-mixed paints, than it would to have painted it twice with strictly pure white lead, ground in pure linseed oil.

Strictly Pure White Lead

forms a permanent base for repainting and never has to be burned or scraped off on account of scaling or cracking. It is always smooth and clean. To be sure of getting strictly pure white lead, purchase any of the following brands:

"Southern," Red Seal," "Collier."

For Colors—National Lead Co's Pure White Lead Tinting Colors, a one-pound can to a 25-pound keg of Lead and mix your own paints. Saves time and annoyance in matching shades and insures the best paint that it is possible to put on wood.

Send us a postal card and get our book on paints and color-card free; it will probably save you a good many dollars

A WORD WITH YOU.

Two blades of grass where there was one before. That's what our garden hose makes; and that's what Jerry Simpson says is "honest productive effort." Think of it! Velvety lawns, fruitful gardens; refreshened, rarefied atmosphere. This is the picture our garden hose calls up, and makes you feel a fatherly interest in all creation. After the evening meal he gives to the grass and flowers the drink that the skies have denied, supplementing Dame Nature's work, correcting her shortcomings. We can find poetry in garden hose. You can not find profit in cheap garden hose. We sell the most durable garden hose in the world. Don't forget that we are leaders in hose novelties.

TOWNS AND PROPHETS.

Towns, like prophets, are sometimes "not without honor save in their own country." All over this state it is a recognized fact that Colorado Springs is the best town in Colorado or in the West, but there may be a few of our own citizens who do not fully appreciate just how good a town it really is. Just take a drive up North Cascade and notice the four splendid new mansions all under way right now on that one street; notice the new stores being built on Tejon, and a new block just finished on South Cascade; a new Coliseum on Nevada avenue; new houses (and good ones) on St. Vrain, Dale, North Nevada, North Weber, and on almost every street in the town. This, too, just after the worst panic that was ever known.

The prosperity of Colorado Springs is largely due to the amazing prosperity of Cripple Creek—another thing that is not half appreciated here. Cripple Creek has one mine that competent experts say can produce more gold than any other mine in the world, the great Treadwell not excepted; it now has a big list of steady dividend payers; it has made millionaires out of two or three men, has made fortunes for two or three hundred men, and it is almost a daily occurrence for someone to make a "stake" that puts him and his family forever beyond the reach of want or the accidents of fate. Cripple Creek is rapidly causing Colorado Springs to change from a town to a city, and it will make it at least the second largest city in the state. Now, before the big advance in values takes place, is the time to get hold of real estate. If you have not the ready money to invest we will trade you good real estate for such stocks as Union, Portland, Isabella, Summit, Pharmacist, Elkton, Gould, or any of the best stocks. If you have a lot of real estate and not much in Cripple Creek interests, we will trade you good stocks for good real estate. Whenever you really mean business we are the people you want to see, as we can do you good.

DENVER HOTELS.

People recently returning from Denver are loud in their praises of the Albany Hotel, which has just been remodeled and newly furnished at a cost of over $100,000, making it one of the best hotels in the country. Conducted in a first-class manner on both European and American plans by an experienced hotel man, with its peerless location, it has suddenly become very popular with tourists and commercial travelers. The very popular rates of $1 a day and upwards on European plan, and $3 to $2.50 American plan, catch the people these times. The manager, Mr. J. D. Fanning, for many years identified with Chicago hotels, spares no pains to make The Albany what it is, the very best hotel in Denver.

INDIAN AND WESTERN CURIOS.

Every tourist who visits the West should take home some articles of Indian handiwork as souvenirs. We buy Indian curios direct from the tribes, our goods are genuine, and we sell cheaper than any curio store in Colorado. We have good Navajo blankets at prices ranging from $2.50 up, and at such prices they are the cheapest rugs, curtains or ornaments that can be bought. The gray and light shaded colors of the olden time are becoming rare; we have them, with absolutely native coloring, and the prices will astonish you. We also have a few Mexican blankets that are offered very cheap.

There are some real wild Apache Indians working for us; they are almost the only remaining Indians who make and use bows and arrows. We have good Apache bows, covered with tendon, incased in goat skin quivers, and with feathered arrows, and we offer them at the same prices you would have to pay the Indians. They make fine hanging ornaments, which are constantly becoming more rare.

From the Ute Reservations we have just received a big consignment of moccasins, leggings, squaw belts, beaded purses, bouches and other articles, and you can buy them at from 40 cents upward. The Utes are the only Indians remaining in Colorado, and a Ute souvenir is also a Colorado souvenir.

We carry all manner of jewelry made from the stones found in the Pike's Peak region, a full assortment of the best views of the scenery in this region, and everything in the way of view books, current literature, books and stationery. And our prices are marked right down to be in conformity with a Waite administration. Spend an hour in our store; you will be made welcome, and you will find enough to interest you.
